9 AT TACOMA

10 AMANDA POPE and RICH POPE,

11 Plaintiffs,

12 v.

13 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

14 Defendant.

CASE NO. 3:17-cv-05868-RJB

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA'S MOTIONS (1) TO DISMISS FOR
FAILURE TO STATE A CLAIM
AND (2) TO STAY DISCOVERY

15 THESE MATTERS come before the Court on Defendant United States of America's 16 Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim (Dkt. 8) and Defendant United States of 17 America's Motion to Stay Discovery (Dkt. 13). The Court has considered the Complaint (Dkt.
18 1), the pleadings of the parties, and the remainder of the file herein. Because the Complaint states
19 a claim upon which relief can be granted, Defendant's motion to dismiss should be denied.
20 Defendant's motion to stay discovery should be denied as moot.

21 BACKGROUND

22 A. The Complaint.

23 The Complaint arises from the alleged negligent medical services provided by Defendant
24 United States of America at a military hospital, Madigan Army Medical Center (MAMC). Dkt. 1

1 at ¶1. It is alleged that Plaintiff Amanda Pope suffered “severe neurological damage . . .
2 rendering her unable to breathe without mechanical assistance and ventilation.” Id. at ¶2. This
3 harm allegedly followed an operation on April 26, 2016, specifically, a “median sternotomy to 4 remove a benign anterior mediastinal mass.” Id. at ¶5. The negligent care and treatment of
5 MAMC’s “employees, agents, and ostensible agents” caused a “bilateral phrenic nerve injury
6 resulting in respiratory failure,” which fell below the standard of care owed and required Plaintiff
7 Amanda Pope to undergo diaphragm plications and resulted in post-surgery complications. Id. at 8 ¶¶7-10.

9 The Complaint alleges a single claim for Negligence. Dkt. 1 at ¶¶15-21. The Prayer for 10 Relief seeks general and special damages, including compensation for loss of consortium for 11 Plaintiff Rich Pope, as well as costs and fees. Id. at pp. 4, 5.

12 B. Procedural history.

13 Plaintiff initiated this action by Complaint on October 25, 2017. Dkt. 1. An Initial
14 Scheduling Order issued by Magistrate Judge Theresa Fricke requires the filing of a Joint Status
15 Report (JSR) by January 25, 2018. Dkt. 4. The Initial Scheduling Order also requires a Rule
16 26(f) Conference by January 11, 2018 and initial disclosures by January 18, 2018. Id.

17 Defendant filed the Motion to Dismiss on January 8, 2018. Dkt. 8. The motion seeks
18 dismissal for failure to state a claim under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) and is noted for January 26,
19 2018. Id. On January 17, 2018, Defendant filed a Motion to Stay Discovery, seeking relief from 20 all Initial Scheduling Order deadlines, including the Rule 26(f) deadline, which had elapsed prior 21 to the filing of the motion. Dkt. 13. See Dkt. 4. The Motion to Stay Discovery is also noted for 22 January 26, 2018. Id.

1 Complaint has not provided adequate notice of what Defendant must defend against. Id. at 4.
2 Defendants do not object to granting Plaintiffs leave to amend the Complaint. Id. at 4, FN1.

3 Plaintiffs contend that the Complaint gives Defendant fair notice of their claim, but
4 requests in the alternative that Plaintiffs be granted leave to amend. Dkt. 12 at 3-6. Plaintiffs
5 argue that this case “can be summed up as follows: during the removal of a tumor from Ms.
6 Pope’s mediastinum, both her phrenic nerves were irreparably damaged, and this constitutes
7 medical malpractice.” Id. at 5.

8 The Complaint states a claim upon which relief can be granted. First, the Complaint
9 alleges sufficient facts to give Defendant fair notice to defend itself effectively. The specific date
10 (April 26, 2016), location (MAMC), underlying surgery details (median sternotomy to remove a
11 benign anterior mediastinal mass), and post-surgery details (respiratory failure, neurological 12 damage, diaphragm plications) are alleged, giving Defendant an even-handed notice of the 13 underlying factual basis for this lawsuit. Second, the Complaint also alleges a plausible theory
14 such that it is not unfair to subject Defendant to the cost of discovery and potential further
15 litigation. The theory is, apparently, that while Plaintiff Amanda Pope underwent a median
16 sternotomy to remove a benign anterior mediastinal mass at MAMC, Defendant also caused a
17 bilateral phrenic nerve injury, an injury that shows treatment or care below that owed to Plaintiff.
18 While this Court expresses no opinion on whether damaging a phrenic nerve when removing a
19 mediastinal tumor may fall below the standard of care, the Complaint has advanced a plausible
20 theory sufficient to allow the parties to proceed with discovery.

21 Because the Complaint states sufficient facts and advances a plausible claim for relief,
22 Defendant’s motion to dismissal for failure to state a claim should be denied.

Defendant's motion also seeks to vacate the deadlines provided in the Initial Scheduling Order. Dkt. 13. See Dkt. 4. Defendant's motion was filed after the Rule 26(f) Conference deadline had elapsed and is noted for consideration after the initial disclosures and JSR deadlines have already elapsed. Defendant waited until January 17, 2018 to file its motion, despite the issuance of the Initial Scheduling Order on October 27, 2017. At a minimum, it would seem that Defendant should have filed the motion simultaneous to filing Defendant's Motion to Dismiss, on January 2, 2018. Nonetheless, it appears that the deadlines have not been observed, so they should be reset. To that extent, Defendant's motion should be granted.

Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED:

(2) Defendant United States of America's Motion to Stay Discovery (Dkt. 13) is HEREBY DENIED IN PART AS MOOT as to the request to stay discovery pending Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. The motion is GRANTED IN PART as to the Initial Scheduling Order (Dkt. 4) deadlines, which are reset AS FOLLOWS:

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT UNITED STATES OF AMERICA'S MOTIONS (1) TO DISMISS FOR FAILURE TO STATE A CLAIM AND (2) TO STAY DISCOVERY - 5

1 IT IS SO ORDERED.

2 The Clerk is directed to send uncertified copies of this Order to all counsel of record and
3 to any party appearing pro se at said party's last known address.

4 Dated this 29th day of January, 2018.
